

Online Newspaper Access

- Go to:

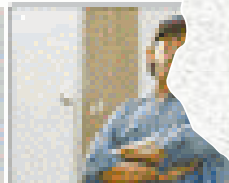

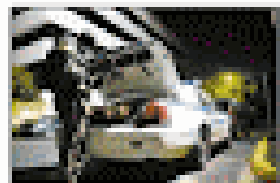

<https://k12nie.com/students/login.php>

- Username: brhslibrary
- Password: news

AND THE OSCAR GOES TO

REID 2022: "The Proposal" goes forward
REID 2022: "The Proposal" goes forward
REID 2022: "The Proposal" goes forward

BRADENTON HERALD

'KIDNAPPING FOR MONEY'

EARLY MORNING RAID | After 12-hour stakeout, deputies find truck, ransom note
SELL AT LARGE | Sheriff says undocumented immigrant abducted Clay Moore

Subdivision parents rightist

Parents in a subdivision are fighting back against a new rule that would require them to pay for a new school building. The rule is part of a larger effort to increase school funding.

Neighbors reflect on suspect

Neighbors of a suspect in a kidnapping case are reflecting on the incident. They describe the suspect as a quiet, unassuming man who lived in the neighborhood for several years.

BRADENTON, Fla. (Herald) — Police officers found a red pickup truck in a driveway in front of a house in Bradenton, Fla., after a 12-hour stakeout. A ransom note was found in the truck. The suspect is an undocumented immigrant who abducted Clay Moore. The suspect is being sought by police.

- Select Bradenton Herald from the list. It will ask you for an email and password.

- email: reid2j@manateeschools.net
- Password: pirates2022

Times editorial

New day, lasting values

On this day in our country, we remember the brave men and women who served our country in the armed forces. The sacrifices they made for us are a source of pride and inspiration for all of us.

As we look back on the lives of these heroes, we are reminded of the values they stood for: courage, sacrifice, and service. These values are the foundation of our nation and the source of our strength.

Today, we honor the men and women who have served and are still serving our country. We thank them for their sacrifices and for the freedom they have given us. We will continue to support and honor them for the rest of our lives.

Their service to our country is a source of pride and inspiration for all of us. We will continue to support and honor them for the rest of our lives. We will continue to support and honor them for the rest of our lives.

As we look back on the lives of these heroes, we are reminded of the values they stood for: courage, sacrifice, and service. These values are the foundation of our nation and the source of our strength.

A Tampa Bay Times special report

CRACKS IN THE SYSTEM

Homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

After Hurricane Ian, an interior foundation crack widened to a hole and pouring concrete into the hole. The hole was about 2 feet wide and 1 foot deep. Photo by Tommie Williams for the Tampa Bay Times.

Homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

A handful of claims

In the wake of Hurricane Ian, many homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

In the wake of Hurricane Ian, many homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

In the wake of Hurricane Ian, many homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

In the wake of Hurricane Ian, many homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

In the wake of Hurricane Ian, many homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

Psychology, not physics, explains the boom

In the wake of Hurricane Ian, many homeowners are rushing to cash in on stinkhole damage before Florida changes the law. They file lots of claims but make few in

Race to Tampa starts Tuesday in los